

1
2
3
4
5
6 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7
8 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
9
10 IRIS BIOTECHNOLOGIES, INC.,
11 v. Appellant, No. C 12-06232 JSW
12 HELLER EHRLMAN LLP, ORDER DISCHARGING ORDER
13 Respondent. CAUSE
14 /
15
16 On February 6, 2013, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause relating to the timeliness
17 of Appellant's brief. The Court has received Appellant's response to the Order to Show Cause,
18 which correctly notes that the Record on Appeal was not entered until January 4, 2013, a fact 19 that the Court inadvertently missed in its review of the docket. Therefore, Appellant's brief was timely, and the Court DISCHARGES the Order to Show Cause.
20
21 The Court notes, however, that in the future, all responses to Court Orders must be on 22 pleading paper. With the exception of discovery disputes, and unless specifically ordered by 23 the Court, the Court does not accept letter briefs.
24
25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
26
27 Dated: February 7, 2013
28

JEFFREY S. WHITE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE